

Leave alone the XM radio services that I pay for and enjoy. The traffic and weather service is something that I pay for and does not take away from what am radio is doing for free. Also since I pay for xm, the federal government should not have a say into what I am paying for in terms of radio service.